

The Way to Farm.

In the Southern Farmer, published at Atlanta, the late Henry W. Grady shortly before his death offered a prize of $5 for each of the best ten sets of five useful suggestions in regard to agriculture. The November, December and January number of the magazine contain ninety-six suggestions. The prizes are to be awarded by the commissioners of Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and South Carolina and the editor, Dr. W. Jones. Commissioner B. M. Hord has forwarded his decision. His first award is to John H. Dent of Cottage Home, Floyd county, Ga., whose suggestions in brief are as follows:

1. A farmer must give his whole time and close attention to his occupation.
2. Raise all your food supplies for man and animals; buy nothing that you can produce yourself.
3. Ten acres thoroughly prepared and well tilled are worth twenty acres half cultivated. We own too much land; sell the surplus and by judicious management make what you retain more valuable.
4. Keep all the stock you can properly attend to. The butcher wants meat and the land wants manure. Home made manure is more reliable and clean than the manure from the city.
5. Read agricultural journals and adopt the suggestions they contain that you believe to be practical.

Nashville Herald.

There is much good sense in the five suggestions, and farmers all over the country would do well to read them carefully. The first one knocks the black out to start with. Too many farmers let their business drag along as it may. He must not only give his attention to it, but he must give the very closest attention to every little detail that enters into the general make up of a good farm. Another is to raise all your food. This is the best of advice. No farmer can succeed when he buys farm products from promiscuous dealers. Taking the five suggestions as a whole, we recommend them to the farmers every where.

Did You Ever?

W. H. Revels, M. D., of Baltimore Md., says: "I have been in the practice of medicine for over eighteen years, but never have I seen the equal of Hodges' Sarsaparilla. It has worked miracles here in curing Rheumatism and Scrofula. Have almost come to the conclusion that I cannot practice without it." Sold by Owen & Moore, Clarksville, Tenn.

Speaker Reed thinks the press of the country is not giving as much space to the proceedings of Congress as it should, and says that the only way to turn the "house" into a "base ball aggregation." Commenting on the subject the Courier-Journal thinks that should Speaker Reed umpire a game of base ball with as much unfairness as he discharges his duties as speaker, his skull would be as nude of hide as his scalp is of hair.

Advice to Mothers

Mrs Winslow's soothing syrup for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea gripping in the bowels and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c a bottle. Dec 25, 1900

A mysterious shower of coal has startled and puzzled the people of Hopkinsville, Ky. It is evidently a coal wave.—Banner.

You are wrong about it; it is evidently a Mulatto wave and a good one at that.

Kelley and Cable are receiving more attention at the hands of the American just now than either Tallmage, Silcott or Tascott.

After Three Years.

W. L. Walton, of Springfield, Tenn., says: "I have been suffering with Neuralgia in my face and head off and on for three years. I purchased a box of Dr. Tanner's Infalible Neuralgia Cure and took eight of the pills. I have not felt any symptoms of Neuralgia since. It gives me pleasure to recommend it." Sold by Owen & Moore, Oct 6-1900.

Banner:—The Manchester Times expresses the fear that the multitude of candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination will fill up the hotels in Nashville and leave the delegates to the convention without accommodations. Never fear. The candidates will show the delegates every possible attention, and if necessary will give up their rooms and take seats on the curbstone. Bless you! The candidates will look well after the comfort of the delegates.

Consumption Surdly.

To the Editor—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and postoffice address.

Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St. N. Y.

FREE POSTAL DELIVERY.

Facts of Interest to Bring Before the Public.

Now that the city limits have been extended and Clarksville will have 10,000 people, the next thing is free postal delivery. The receipts of the Clarksville post office now are about $1,000 in excess of the requisite amount for free delivery.

The business of the office last year amounted to $10,968.75, an increase over the previous year of $798.21.

In the year 1878, the receipts of the office were $6,522.01, with letter postage at 3 cents for one-half ounce, and papers 1 cent per ounce. Ten years later the receipts had increased to $10,175.54, a gain of $3,653.53, and in this period the rate had been reduced nearly 50 per cent on letters and papers. The receipts would have more than doubled in the decade had the rate on mail matter remained the same as in 1878.

Mrs. Johnson, our correspondent lately with parties in Washington in regard to the needs of a public building, and in the face of the above figures the request that Congress appropriate money for that purpose cannot be ignored. Go to work and get the appropriation. You, reader, are the one who is meant.

Our candidate for President.

He will be nominated by the convention and will be elected by the people, because he will come the nearest to filling their ideal of a Chief Magistrate. Electric Bitters has been given the highest place, because no other medicine has so well filled the ideal of a perfect tonic and alterative. The people have endorsed Electric Bitters and rely upon this great remedy in all troubles of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. For all Malarial Fevers and diseases caused by Malarial Poisons, Electric Bitters cannot be too highly recommended. Also cures Headache and Constipation. Satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1 at Owen & Moore Drug Store.

The farmers are watching the political papers of Tennessee and they never did before, and those that treat us unfairly will cease to enter the farmers' household. Our members have learned that warning an adder in their bosoms is bad policy.—Toller.

Now you hear it boys! We have been telling you bad fellows to keep quiet or Brother McDowell would convert you into resting stools for his weary body at speaking bee's. Brother McDowell is shaping this campaign to suit his own sweet will, and under newspapers have no business fairly, and if you do he will just call a meeting and set down on you. If you desire to continue to move your slimy selves in the farmers' bosom, it will be wise to follow the example of the good American and give Brother McDowell a little taffy as often as convenient.

Foreign Exchange.

When desiring to send money to friends or for business requirements, to Europe, in any amount from Five dollars up, without limit, call on the Franklin Bank. The cost will be guaranteed to be as small, very probably less, than any other plan.

As to the Western purchase and additions: Oklahoma seems to have been a great bargain, since it has been discovered that its climate and soil are peculiarly adapted to the raising of wheat, and other cereals.—M. C. Moss in the National Democrat.

A Tobacco Factory.

The CHRONICLE has it pretty straight that Clarksville is going to have a large plug tobacco factory pretty soon. The men who are engaged in the move are solid business citizens, and mean business when they start a thing. The news will be given in a few days.

The farmers of Georgia have got square down to work, and they are now reaping their reward. The Atlanta Journal one of the ablest edited papers in the State in a pointed article goes on to show the great benefits arising from the co-operation of the tillers of the soil, and from which we clip the following facts and present them to the farmers of Tennessee:

The farmers are deriving great benefit from the Alliance. It has saved them, in Georgia alone, $200,000 in a single year on the purchase of fertilizers. It has lowered the cost of almost every article they use, food, clothing, farm implements, wagons, buggies, and even the few luxuries that Georgia farmers have been able to enjoy.

It has taught the farmers the use of the most powerful weapon in the struggles of peace or war—co-operation.

Is it Illegal?

Some of the best lawyers in the city have said since the extension decision that it was all illegal and that it could not hold in the courts. They make the claim that a man living in the city, and owning property in the territory annexed, had no right to a vote. This will not hold, for the fact is plainly demonstrated in decisions of the Supreme Court, that the property holders have a vote in such elections where their interests are at stake. The CHRONICLE is of the opinion that the election will hold good in any court from the Magistrate to the United States Supreme Court.

From our Washington special we learn that the pensions appropriations have been increased by the sum of $10,000,000, thus proving that though thousands of the veterans of the Union armies are being carried to their graves every year, pensioners continue to increase in numbers. There is something wrong somewhere about this pension business. The Commercial does not begrudge the faithful old soldiers their well-earned pensions, but it does object to bums and ninety day men being put on a level with them.—Memphis Commercial.

The pension list will increase so long as the Republican party holds the reins of government. You may count on that.

Memphis Commercial: The Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company proposes to extend its line running from this city to Newport News to Washington, D. C., where it will connect with the Pennsylvania system to all points North. This would afford the people of this section another through route to New York as running through a most desirable country, noted for its scenery and summer resorts.

Senator Edmunds managed to keep himself free, and unspotted from the Dudley "block of five" scandal until a few days ago, when the wily old Vermonter was roped in by the administration to defend Dudley, Judge Wood & Co., against the scathing arraignment by scathing the tall sycamore of the Wabash. It was a wonderful decent for Mr. Edmunds from the lofty place which he has occupied.

The proposed Federal Election Law is going to have a hard time in getting through Congress, judging from present indications. The Republican members who favored it a year ago are now doubting the propriety of it. The majority of the Southern Republicans think that it would be extremely difficult to frame a bill that would "benefit" the situation more than it would injure it.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen will have to do some pretty wise legislation from now on. The new district that has just been taken in, will demand attention at once, and the men who can meet the requests of the outside parties now will be entitled to recognition as a smart man. The greatest care should be taken in the matter, or serious results may come up.

George H. Armistead, the talented editor of the Nashville Herald, better known as "Armiel," the American's campaign correspondent in 1884, has been elected secretary of the Nashville Commercial Club. A better selection could not have been made. His facile pen is well calculated to show Nashville beautifully arrayed in her best Sunday clothes.

In regard to Mr. Enloe's resolution which has been ventilated thoroughly in these columns, the Memphis Commercial very aptly remarks: "Mr. Enloe is to be congratulated for introducing a resolution in the House looking to the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people. This was first recently mooted by The Clarksville Chronicle, seconded by The Commercial, and afterward by The Pine Bluff Commercial."

Mike Clery, William Muldoon and Mike Donovan have just paid a visit to Purvis, Miss., for the purpose of answering charges against them for taking a hand in the Sullivan-Kilrain fight at that place last July. It is to be hoped that they will both be juggled.
